

COURT REPORTER CAREER EXPLORATION PROGRAM

Court reporting plays a vital role in the criminal justice system, serving as a key asset in court to judges and attorneys. Utilizing technology and communication skills, a court reporter records and relays information for use during and after a trial. Currently this career path requires a 2-year (Associate) degree and is in very high demand with more jobs being added each year. With online education, local mentorship opportunities available, and with a current local starting wage between $40K-$50K/year, this is an excellent career to explore right now!
