

PSYCHOLOGY & HUMAN STUDIES CAREER EXPLORATION PROGRAM

Students who have an interest in the study of people, their behaviors, their mental development, and the treatment of social and mental health issues will want to take advantage of this career explorations opportunity. Presented by the Human Development and Family Studies Department at Penn State York, students attending can look forward to exploring the types of careers in this field, the training and education required to attain the various jobs within this career cluster, and learning common practices employed throughout this career path.

Eligibility: High School Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors

Location: Penn State—York Campus
1031 Edgecomb Ave.
York, PA 17403

Date: Friday, April 24, 2020

Time: 9:00AM - 2:00PM

Parking: Parking is available in any of the parking lots designated for students, labeled Lot “D” on the campus map found online (there is a link to the right if viewing this online)

Program Schedule

Friday April 24, 2020
9:00AM-2:00PM

Topics to be Covered:

- Introduction to Careers in Psychology/Human Studies
- Working with Diverse Populations
- Strength-based Practices
- Social Science Career Paths
 - Early Childhood to Older Adulthood
- Discuss Educational Paths to Psychology/Human Studies Careers

Visit www.ycal.us for the application or see your High School's Guidance/
Career Coordinator for more details

CLICK HERE TO VIEW THE CAMPUS MAP!

*Students attending this program should park in any of the student lots
(Labeled "D" on the map).*

Once parked, students should meet at the Community Room inside of the Student Center (across from the gym).

Presented By:

PennState
York